Mere Christianity

Jesus → Cross

(the ultimate self-sacrifice)

- God created you to be his Son/Daughter
 - in this life and in the one to come (if you so choose)
- Because of our actions (“sin”) we often cause harm
 - to ourselves, and/or to others; this separates us from God
- Jesus suffered in solidarity with our suffering
 - and to enable reconciliation between us and God
- If we accept this, and commit our lives to Him, we can be “Saved”
 - we can be in relationship with God now, and in the life to come
- This will start the process of us growing to be the kind of person who will be a Joy to be with in Heaven for eternity
- All we have to do is commit our lives to God
 - based on what Jesus did on the cross for us.
